Worldliness is adopting the values, desires, lifestyle and system of this sinful world that are contrary to God's will — it includes not being controlled by the love of the things of this world.

INTRODUCTION

According to John 17:14–16, Jesus prayed for His disciples that God should keep them in the world by His word, because He knew that there is a lot of evil in the world that can separate believers from God or make Christians enemies of God, by removing their hearts from God.
