INTRODUCTION

Every human being, people or nation that God proposes or uses to fulfil His purposes on earth is called. However, there are important distinctions between the types of calls. There are those that God "calls" to be used by God such as the Assyrians, Nebuchadnezzar, Cyrus etc. (Isa. 10:5–7 — Amplified Bible; Jer. 25:9 — KJV; Isa. 45:4–5 — KJV)

There are also those that God calls into fellowship with Himself. This type of call is the heavenly calling. (Heb. 3:1) They are called to serve in His kingdom, prepared to have the heavenly mindset. No one can ever come to God except he/she is called. (John 6:65) Some are called to fulfil a purpose in history on earth. This call has nothing to do with personal relationship with God. (Isa. 10:5–7) While the heavenly calling is about relationship with God, service with God and about eternity with God.

WHAT IS THE MEANING OF CALL TO SERVE IN THE KINGDOM?

The phrase "call to serve" means a divine invitation or assignment from God to live for His purpose or carry a specific assignment for God. (Eph. 2:10; Gal. 1:15–16; Exo. 31:2)

The phrase means:

(a) God is initiating something

(b) Choosing or inviting you

(c) God is giving a purpose or direction (Rom. 11:13; Gal. 2:8; Acts 9:15)

WHO IS CALLED TO SERVE?

(1) Every Believer (Eph. 2:10; Matt. 28:19–20; Titus 2:11–14)

TYPES AND AREAS OF SERVICE

(A) In the Church — Pastor, Teacher, Prophets, Administration etc. (Eph. 4:11; Rom. 12:6–8)

(B) Evangelism (Soul Winning) (Matt. 28:19–20)

(C) Giving towards God's Work (2 Cor. 9:1, 5)

(D) Charity (Gal. 5:13)

ATTITUDE REQUIRED FOR KINGDOM SERVICE

(1) Love (1 Cor. 13:1–3; John 13:34)

(2) Willingness (Isa. 6:8)

(3) Faithfulness to the Call (Acts 20:22–24; Phil. 1:20)

CONCLUSION

The call to serve is a privilege and responsibility. When believers serve faithfully, God's kingdom is advanced, strengthened and His name is glorified. The reward of service that is done faithfully and acceptably starts from now till eternity.
